With grim formality,
preparations for the execution of Bruno Richard Hauptmann at 8 o'clock on the night of Jan. 17, went forward today as his lawyers worked feverishly on
their last moves to save him
from death.Some time today Executioner Robert Elliott was to receive the invitation which will bring him
to New Jersey state prison to perform
his macabre task that night. The physicians who are to pronounce
the Lindbergh baby's murderer dead
have been designated. Invitations
have been sent out to 18 official wit-

several fronts preparing for the last

Castleton hotel, it was said today.
Formal wear is not barred, but the majority of the crowd will be in business clothes, barring of course
the inherent right of the ladies to dress up.Because most every city is holding a Jackson Day dinner it was found impossible to get any out-

tonight will be by local men. The dinner starts at seven, and the program
will be over in time to hear the president's radio address at ten.
Dancing will follow.Earl Wimer, the chairman of the

ness last night were ordered dis-

for the first time in years prisoners
walked from a jail cell to liberty

before His Honor, the Mayor.
Mayor Charles E. McGrath's action
today was in pursuance to his statement, made yesterday, in which he said, that unless the offense
deems a hearing important, no open
police court sessions will be held.
"Actually I did hold police court,"
Mayor McGrath stated to The News

Police Chief John F. Haven full reports as to why the men were arrested."After studying them I came to the conclusion their offenses were
not serious enough for an open

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 8.—As dis-

Thelma Todd to an abrupt close,
pretty Margaret Lindsay, film star,
had collapsed on the studio lot, of-

in the real-life drama.Miss Lindsay was confined to her home with a nervous breakdown,
unable to continue work in her latest starring vehicle, "Murder By An Aristocrat." Warner Brothers officials said Miss Lindsay would be replaced in the cast.May Drop Probe.
Meanwhile it was learned that
some members of the grand jury favored dropping the investigation into
the death of the blonde screen star.
They contend, it is known,
that no definite evidence of foul play
has been uncovered since Miss Todd's body, bleeding at the mouth
and clad only in an evening gown,
was found behind closed garage doors Dec. 16.Other members of the jury, still leaning toward a "murder by monoxide" theory, are insistent the investigation be extended. After hearing
testimony yesterday, the jury adjourned
until 10 a. m. tomorrow, when as far as is known, it will resume the investigation.Dismissing members claim evidence
points either to accident or suicide
while those favoring continuation of the investigation have discarded the accidental theory and argue with Miss Todd's friends, including Miss Lindsay, that the beautiful star had
no reason to take her own life.
Unless 12 of the 18 jurors sit in the investigation, the body will lack a quorum and will thus be unable to take any official action.Charges Morgan

House of Morgan, acting as the fi-

Britain, bought millions of dollars worth of guns and ammunition, the committee experts contended that this net grew ever larger, and was an important factor in drawing the United States into the war.Disclosing records of the gun
transactions of twenty years ago,
the committee investigator, Stephen Rauschenbush, argued that these raided the Morgan firm using all its persuasive powers to bring an enormous expansion of munitions
manufacture in this country.Rauschenbush contended that the
correspondence disclosed that the rifle manufacturers were reluctant
to expand for the new foreign business.Thomas Lamont, one of the Morgan partners, disputed this claim.

that the city council has authorized

President Roosevelt will address the country tonight,
via the radio, for the second
time within a week, but under vastly different circumstances.On Friday night he spoke to an extraordinary session of congress,
extensively on "the state of the nation" but his millions of listeners
heard, instead, an implied criticism
of European and Asiatic war-mongering, and a slashing attack on the "entrenched greed" of those who
have opposed his recovery program.

Speaks To Own Party

Tonight, Mr. Roosevelt speaks optensively to his own party on the anniversary of Andrew Jackson's birth.
Democrats gathered at 2,000 Jackson Day dinners throughout the country will be his immediate audience. But the greater audience will be listening for something else—a possible reply to the supreme court
which has wrecked the main pillars of his economic planning.Mr. Roosevelt avoided an opportunity late yesterday to speak his own feelings concerning the court's evolution of the far-flung AAA. He simply said, answering scores of questions at a press conference, that
the history-making decisions—
plural—were being studied and that nothing concrete had yet been worked out to substitute for the blotted-out legislation.But in the aggressively Democratic atmosphere here that invariably attends Jackson Day dinners, the
president may, it was said today,
be constrained to speak out. Democratic oratory at Jackson dinners
is of the militant variety. It is the party's big whoop-a-night, and a call to the faithful to spring to arms.Opportunity There

Chicago Man To Face Trial

Accused Of Operating Confidence Game In Love Correspondence

ESTIMATE LARGE SUM IS INVOLVED

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Nathaniel Herbert Wheeler, 51-year-old mail order Romeo, who "often led up to marriage but never came right out and proposed it like a man would," will be tried in felony court today on charges of operating a confidence game.

The "florid, dignified, smooth-talking" Wheeler is alleged to have defrauded women throughout the world of an estimated million dollars by striking up friendships through "Lonely Heart" columns and matrimonial advertisements and persuading his mail order loves to invest their savings to him for insurance.

Sent Nicest Letters

Mrs. Rena Felger of Chicago told investigators Wheeler took $1200 from her last April, giving her in return 12500 shares of mining stock, which he said cost him one dollar a share. Authorities said the shares cost Wheeler eighteen cents each.

He sent me the nicest letter and piece of poetry," Mrs. Felger said. "He called on me several times. He led up to marriage but never came right out and proposed it. Well, smarter ones than me fell for it."

Others who fell included Conchita from Quito, Ecuador, who wrote "Daddy Boy" Wheeler that she was a nudist, that she had some pictures of herself in nudist poses.

And there was a note from Janet Dawson of Akron, O., who wrote after receiving "Daddy Boy's" picture that she couldn't understand why he should be enrolled in a "Lonely Hearts" club when his name should be in the social register.

SUBSTITUTE FARM RELIEF PROGRAM IS PLANNED

the AAA ready now and may be unable to evolve one without appearing to be "stealing" the G. O. P. program.

The senate meanwhile continued in recess while the house prepared to take up the first of the major appropriation bills, which President Roosevelt announced in his budget message would call for an expenditure of $6,752,000,000 during the next fiscal year.

Republicans planned to attack the bill on the economy issue, since the president's new budget contemplates another annual deficit in excess of one billion dollars.

Seek To Rush Bonus

Bonus advocates planned to go before the house rules committee, seeking a rule to provide prompt house consideration of that measure.

Bonus leaders predicted debate on the bill would start before the end of the week, with its passage assured.

The immediate outlook for substitute AAA legislation was somewhat clouded, because Democratic leaders apparently did not know what the administration planned to do. There was no such uncertainty on the part of Republican leaders. Senator McNary of Oregon, Republican senate leader, announced his bill would be ready for introduction "in a few days." He will submit it to the farmer's conference for their approval. He was joined by several of his Republican colleagues in drafting it.

The farm conference here will be attended by leaders of the American Farm Bureau Federation, the National Grange, the National Cooperative Council, the Farmers' National Grain Corporation and the National Association of Agriculture Editors.

PLANS PROCEED FOR EXECUTION OF HAUPTMANN

commutation of sentence to life imprisonment, or doom him by denying his plea.

The court seldom grants clemency, and the New York Evening Journal in a copyrighted story today quoted an unnamed member of the court as saying that the sentiment of the body stands eight to five against extending mercy to Hauptmann.

The judge was quoted as saying his colleagues "minds are made up and it'll take plenty of new evidence to change them."

Escape Chances Slim

While this would indicate Hauptmann's chances of escaping the chair are slim, the condemned man continued to radiate confidence in the death house. He merely grinned when Col. Mark O. Kimberling, principal keeper, informed him of the date of execution.

Shortly afterward, he told his spiritual adviser, the Rev. John Matthiesen:

"I will not that way go out."

He jerked his thumb in the direction of the "little green door" which leads to the execution chamber.

"I will that way go out," he said.

Asked what Hauptmann continues to base his optimism on, the grave-digger Lutheran minister said:

"He says he is innocent and knows something that will save him. He knows there are many people in New Jersey who believe in his innocence and who are working for him. He has faith in Governor Hoffman."

Claim Innocence

When asked if he shares Hauptmann's optimism, Matthiesen gesturing with his hands, replied, hesitantly:

"Well, sometimes I'm that way, and sometimes I'm this way. Sometimes I'm cheerful about his chances and sometimes I think—"

His expression told what he thought.

"I can say this," he continued. "I am absolutely convinced this man is innocent of the crime. But I don't know what God has in store for him."

"God moves in mysterious ways. By taking one life, he might correct a condition that would save many other lives. These are troubles and uncertain times."

Hauptmann was visited again yesterday by his wife, Anna, and moved into Trenton, C. Lloyd Fisher, chief of defense counsel, also conferred with the condemned man.

While Fisher is close-mouthed about defense plans, it is understood he will have a large group of witnesses available to testify before the court of pardons Saturday.

Chief among them will be Ellis Parker, noted Mount Holly detective. The defense is reported to have brought one witness from Germany and to have another on his way here now.

The court can hear these witnesses, or decline to hear them, as it sees fit. According to sources close to the governor, the court will hear witnesses for both the defense and the state. Whether Hauptmann himself will be heard, still has not been decided definitely.

Henry Ashurst (D) of Arizona and Rep. Hutton Summers (D) of Texas "gave" no encouragement to the initial efforts of those seeking to amend the basic law.

Delay of Years

Farm leaders doubted the feasibility of a constitutional amendment from a practical standpoint in solving the farm problem. A delay of years in enactment would be almost certain, they agreed.

In both senate and house there was some demand for action to prevent the supreme court from interfering with congress.

Meanwhile the high court pursued its work apparently oblivious to the furor over the AAA decision.

More acts of the Roosevelt administration may topple in a decision day of the high court of next Monday.

The court has before it the Bankhead cotton act, the refund provisions of the amended AAA and the Tennessee valley authority act.

HUGE FRANCO-BRITISH NAVAL MOVEMENT TO OCCUR IN JANUARY

rious, Cairo and the 21st destroyer flotilla (nine ships) will, in accordance with normal annual practice, undertake their spring cruise about the middle of January," said a statement from the British admiralty, which maintained the pretense that these shifts are "routine."

Will Return To United Kingdom

"Simultaneously, the home fleet units now at Gibraltar, comprising the Hood, Ramillies, Orion and Neptune, will return to the United Kingdom."

No official explanation for the reduction of Britain's naval strength in the Mediterranean was forthcoming, but observers believe Britain now feels she can safely spare certain ships as a result of definite promises of French naval aid.

The fact that Britain might have used the seasonal maneuver period for a really big withdrawal from Italy's "Mare Nostrum" as a face saving excuse, but passed up the opportunity and actually offset the withdrawals, was viewed as indicating that nothing in justify a feeling that Premier Mussolini has softened his attitude toward Britain.

Rome, Jan. 8.—Commenting upon the British Mediterranean fleet movements announced today, official quarters observed there had been no lessening of the Anglo-Italian tension in Italy's "Mare Nostrum."

As for the movements themselves, it was said Italy had no official information regarding them.

PRESIDENT WILL ADDRESS MEMBERS OR PARTY TONIGHT

a gala, as well as costly, affair. Nearly 1,700 diners have paid $50 a plate for the privilege of attending, $45 of which is to go to the party treasury to help decrease that enormous $400,000 deficit which has hung over the national committee since the Al Smith campaign.

Dinner elsewhere throughout the country range lower in plate price. But the plan has been to leave a margin in them all for the treasury.

V. Forbes Morgan, the party treasurer, and Big Jim Farley, the national chairman, hope to realize some $250,000 by tonight's festivities.

There has been considerable under-surface grumbling about the faithful over the cost of these dinners. Administration officials in the treasury are reported to be "in the mood" to put up $50 per plate with the "or else" accompaniment. Even the lower-paid employees, in the $1-400 and $1,600 brackets were solicited for the $5 and $10 affairs. The result is that there is going to be a whole of an attendance all over the country.

Committee To Meet

Meanwhile, members of the national committee were drifting into the capital today for tomorrow's session which will determine the time and place for the national convention in June.

The contest between cities for the convention has narrowed down to Chicago and Philadelphia, with the issue apparently put up to the most money probably will get the show.

Both cities have initially offered $150,000. Farley says he has a "sentimental attachment" for Chicago because of 1932, but there are some other influential figures in the party who lean to an eastern site.

If the party managers realize their estimates of $250,000 profit on the committee dinners, tonight, and the Jackson dinner, it will enable the party to climb out of the red, and face the '36 campaign with a clean slate—but broke.

The task will then be to finance the fight this year, and the Democrats are going to be hard put to find "big money."

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Colonic—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up in your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks lunk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes the good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmlessly and safely making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

EDYTHE LEVINE AND CLEVELAND MAN WED

Much interest to New Castleites is the wedding that took place at Cleveland, O., January 5, in Virginia Hall on Superior avenue, when Miss Edythe Levine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Levine, of Blaine street, this city, became the bride of A. Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Schwartz, of Hampton avenue, Cleveland, O.

DR. BENNETT TALKS TO A. B. D. GIRLS

An educational talk by Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, on his native country Australia, furnished the program for the January meeting of A. B. D. Girls, Tuesday evening, in the home of Miss Margaret Hice, on Wallace avenue.

Dr. Bennett, who was born and raised in Australia, presented in an informal and most interesting manner, a wealth of facts concerning the country, telling of its people, customs, government, products, exports climate and beauty. As is the chief pursuit of Australia, which supplies the bulk of the wool in the world. Proportioning population and sheep there, the figures run something like six million inhabitants and one hundred and twenty million sheep, where in this country, the figures are reversed. Immigration laws are strict and one third of the population there is located in the three largest cities, Sidney, Melbourne and Adelaide, each with a million people.

The climate is warm almost the year round, with the seasons reversed from those in this country. As the country is a level plain, houses are usually of a single story, furnace heat in schools and big buildings is not used, and public buildings and parks are unusually beautiful. The lowly rabbit is the worst pest in the country, it being necessary to exterminate them with poison gas at intervals throughout the year as they destroy the crops, even though most of the latter are protected by rabbit fences.

Dr. Bennett held the keen and interested attention of his listeners for more than an hour and a half, his talk being keenly appreciated. Afterwards, he told bits of church history which were of further interest.

The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. James B. Foster, and Mrs. R. G. Campbell had devotions.

WRECKAGE OF A. A. A.

WRECKAGE of the invalidated Agricultural Adjustment act today lies beside the ruins of the outlawed NRA. Thus fall, at a word from the Supreme Court of the United States, those regimented programs which President Roosevelt, in October, 1933, proudly acclaimed as the "pillars" of the New Deal. From the debris rises plain, old-fashioned Americanism.

The Court's six-to-three verdict against the AAA, amendments and all, is the most important news this country has had since that epochal day last May when the Blue Eagle was eliminated.

Affecting directly, perhaps, more persons than has any other decision by a Supreme Court in the history of the Nation, it shines forth as assurance that it is the Federal Constitution, and not that which the President has termed "new instruments of public power," that still guides the Nation's destinies.

The majority opinion of the Court, as read by Justice Roberts, leaves no shadow of doubt concerning the fundamental illegality of the program. Congress has no constitutional power to enforce its commands upon the farmer to the ends sought by the law. It has no power to tax and spend to obtain compliance. It has no legal authority to regulate agriculture within the States. It should be noted that the majority of the Court holds that even were farm co-operation wholly voluntary, instead of being in part compulsory, the act would still be invalid. Moreover, the majority ruling clarifies to a degree the extent to which the "general welfare" clauses of the Constitution may be made the basis for specific legislation. In the interpretation of the Court majority, "general welfare" does not authorize the use of tax funds for any particular group. The clause means what it implies, taxing and spending for general, not special, welfare.

What this sweeping decision against AAA may indicate concerning the fate of other controverted legislation of the New Deal is may be idle to speculate. Yet there can be little question that inherent in the Guffey Coal Control law, the Bankhead Cotton act and the notorious Potato law, are the same regulatory philosophy and the same invasion of the rights of States which marked the fore-doomed AAA. Nor are the Wagner Labor act and the Wheeler-Rayburn Utility law armored against some of the same accusations of invalidity which found AAA vulnerable.

It is significant that the majority decision declares that if the AAA's taxes were valid, all industry could be dominated by Congress through the same means.

PRICE OF COMMON COLD

Common colds, according to Dr. Lloyd Arnold, of the University of Illinois College of Medicine, cost the nation $100,000,000 a year. In addition, there is a national increase of 80,000 deaths between October and April, most of the fatalities being attributable to common colds and their complications.

To cut down the cold bill, this authority urges people to keep fit and healthy, avoid excesses of all kinds, keep in good physical and mental condition, eliminate overeating and stay away from infants and children, who are more susceptible, when a cold develops.

Only by going to bed and consulting a physician can a person with the sneezes and sniffles safeguard his own health and avoid being a social menace.

The common cold is one of man's worst and most persistent enemies. It should always be treated as a potential danger of serious significance, whether viewed from the angle of prevention or cure.

PROTECTING PUBLIC PAPERS

The recent fire in the new post office department building in Washington has brought up two questions for the consideration of the government. One is that of more thorough inspections of fire hazards in federal buildings and more efficient methods of preserving public documents. The other is that of determining the need of keeping and preserving such a tremendous quantity of public papers. How can the valuable papers be better preserved and how many of the papers now on file are not important and could be thrown away?

That blaze did not do as much damage either to the building or to documents as had at first been feared, but it should serve as a warning to government officials and stimulate interest in some corrective measures. As a result a five point programme has been proposed for enactment at the present session of congress.

It embraces the establishment of a board of inspection with a continuing function of systematic survey of fire hazards in all government buildings, including the district fire marshal, the fire prevention expert from the bureau of standards and the archivist of the United States, an inspection plan with exact instructions regarding details of inspection affecting all fire hazards, the safety of life and the protection of records; the institution of a code of safeguards and inspection; the organization of a special wrecking crew, whose duty it will be to respond immediately to all alarms, prepared to wrap and rescue all records that may be exposed to damage or destruction and to carry them to places of safety, and finally the installation of a prevention and detection system with half hourly inspection, to give warning of fire danger.

The establishment of a warehouse for non-current files and the erection of a Hall of Archives for the documents of permanent and historical value have not been sufficient. There is need of sorting out the important papers which should be kept, placing them in safekeeping where they will be easily accessible and destroying the others. The whole nation is interested in adequate protection for important government papers.

Aren't we going to have no potato control now?

Why does Junior tell lies? He ought to know it won't work when he catches you at it.

The government is being smart if rich taxpayers are like pansies. The more you pick pansies, the more they bloom.

Strange parents! They spend fifteen years acting like slaves to a princess and then blame the girl for thinking they are.

Only 11 Can Run Fast.

Eating Themselves Out.

Considerable Hypocrisy.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE sports department shows that out of about 1,800,000,000 human beings on earth only eleven are known that can run a mile at really high speed of these not more than four would have any chance of beating an individual named Glenn Cunningham, of Kansas.

You would think that the billion unknown uncrowned among the so-called "backward races," many with native energy, free of civilization's handicaps, could easily be trained to beat the eleven fast ones, but it is not probable.

RUNNING on two legs one mile in a fraction over four minutes, eight seconds, is an achievement of brain and willpower primarily. To make yourself run more than twenty feet in every second and keep that up for a mile in a mental process.

So it is with the more popular golf. Three men finished a 72-hole competition, one with 272 strokes, another with 277, another with 278. If men could develop and train their thinking processes as closely as they do their muscular processes there would be improvement.

The original Greek Marathon runner would seem slow in 1936, but the brains of Socrates, Plato and Aristotle, three other Greeks, would not seem slow.

IN AN effort to "eat itself out of debt," as somebody puts it, the Democratic party tomorrow night will sit down to about 2,500 separate.

All Of Us

By MARSHALL MASLIN

I...I...I
At this time of the year I can think of nothing pleasanter than to sit in a corner between two walls, protected from the wind, and let the thin, wintry sun soak me through and through.

I have known only two practical jokers who thought a practical joke on themselves was funny.

See that window washer, way up there on the fourteenth floor of that building, doing his stuff. . . . That's one job I would not want.

It's at least six months since any strange insurance man tried to interest me in more insurance. . . . Have I worn them out at last? . . . Second thought: Every one of those insurance men were courteous, friendly, not disagreeably persistent, and treated me as though I really did mean what I said when I said "no." . . . I'm grateful.

I can sneeze any time I want. . . . Trouble is that once I start I can't stop—any time I want.

This last year has flown so fast I cannot think where all of it went. . . . Will all my years, the good, the bad, the indifferent, have such mighty wings? . . . And where is Time taking me so swiftly?

I made a silly remark and blushed for myself. . . . Then I noticed that apparently nobody had heard my silliness. . . . Or had they heard it and politely agreed to pay no attention to me? . . . Then I was even more embarrassed.

"Embarrassed" is the word I'm never sure I have spelled correctly.

Most dreadful moment in my childhood was the time I was leading a cow home from pasture and tied the rope around my waist. . . . She ran away and I came tumbling after. Bruised my knees and ripped my pants and it was an awful mess.

I told two little girls I know that I always received fine marks in school. . . . And did they scoff at me?

It's True—They were just as excited in "the good old days" over quintuplets as now. During the reign in Rome of Emperor Hadrian, an Egyptian woman gave birth to quintuplets and the event aroused such widespread interest through the empire that Hadrian had the mother and babes brought to Rome for exhibition.

The World At A Glance

Mid-South Sweeps On.
Has New-Dealish Tinge.
New Developments Seen.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 8.—A person obtains a new perspective of the mid-south when one remains here for ten days. The northern states boast of their progressiveness, but here in the mid-south there is incubating a movement that means a definite change in conditions.

A resident of the region would not be so apt to observe the trend as a visitor—a first-time visitor. Conditions became so bad among tenant farmers and sharecroppers, and among certain groups of miners and industrial workers, that they began struggling. It was a feeble struggle at first. But now that they begin to realize they can swim if they try, they are beginning to swim en masse against the current.

A decade will disclose a remarkable difference. If I were a business man, I should invest judiciously in the south now, for with endeavor to raise its living standards and its development of waterpower and other natural resources, it will gain immeasurably during the next quarter of a century.

As the south develops, its statesmen will be not more conservative, but more and more "radical," as radicalism is measured in terms of today. They will be classed as a new type of progressives, heartily detested by the old states' rights statesmen.

Huey Long was a crude pioneer, alongside what this new man will be. He recognized none of the finesses of true progressivism. He already was antedated—it seems now—when an assassin's gun removed him from the scene.

The new representatives of the south will speak in terms of national responsibility to all the people.

In fact, I have read and heard more of that in my visit south than ever I have heard in the industrial north, where the depressed thousands are not so visible as here.

NO TURNING BACK
Of course, the federal government has aided in the awakening. The critics who desired no awakening, can justly accuse the Roosevelt administration of giving these submerged thousands hope that they can better conditions.

One can sense the welding of all these folk, and their evident silent determination to consolidate whatever gains they have achieved. It is needless to say that this mass is for President Roosevelt for reelection—unless somebody further to the left comes along.

Back in 1897, Mrs. Lottie Blair Parker wrote a play, "Way Down East," which she sold to William Brady, theatrical producer, for $1,000 cash. The play was accorded instant popularity on the stage and later in the Movies. Now it has been filmed a second time.

It is estimated that from the original investment of $1,000, more than $3,000,000 has been made out of the play. This author's experience is a good deal like that of Harriet Beecher Stowe who never received a penny in royalties from the play of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Another similar experience is that of Dr. Charles M. Sheldon and his book, "In His Steps," which through an oversight was not copyrighted, but because of this could be sold at such a low price that it has become the most widely-circulated book next to the Bible.

New Officers Of Cosmo Club Are Installed

Officers Take Places At Interesting Session In Club Rooms Last Evening

SPEAKER FROM GERMANY HEARD

Members of the Cosmo club spent one of the most enjoyable meetings in the history of the organization last evening when the new officers of the club were formally inducted. A lavish supper followed the ceremonies of the evening, which were enhanced by several interesting addresses.

The meeting was opened by President Irving Grossman reviewing the accomplishments during the past year and announcing the plans for the coming year. The invocation was delivered by Rabbi Norman H. Diamond of Temple Israel, after which Mayor Charles E. McGrath was introduced and spoke briefly of his aims while in office.

A telegram was read from Mayor Lewis Levine of Farrell regretting his inability to attend.

Hear Addresses
Short talks were given by Rabbi Diamond, Rabbi Pinchos Katz, of Tifereth Israel synagogue, and Rabbi H. Leon Schwartz of Beth Shalom synagogue. The rabbis were then given honorary membership in the club. Rabbi Katz entertained with a humorous song, which was much enjoyed.

Louis Sandler spoke briefly and introduced Dr. Otto Levita, German high school professor, who spoke of his experiences in Germany. His talk was most interesting.

Dr. Levita, in trying to explain why many visitors to Germany do not see the mistreatment accorded the Jews by Nazis, by stating that he has not seen anyone killed or injured in an automobile accident, nor any murders committed since his arrival in this country seven months ago, although the press carries many reports of these incidents.

Names Committees
Following the benediction by Rabbi Schwartz, the membership did full justice to the excellent lunch prepared by members of the entertainment committee, under the supervision of H. Ruzevich.

The committees announced by President Grossman are as follows:

House committee: David Victor, chairman; J. Rosen, vice chairman;

N. Rosen, B. Brown, S. Wolfe, B. Zeisel, J. Lebby.
Entertainment committee: C. C. Levine, chairman; Dr. Henry Sloan, publicity; Hy. Wolfe, Harry Friedman, Henry Cohen, Dr. H. T. Botwin, Alvin Shenkan.
Membership committee: Ted Martin, chairman; E. Haines, vice chairman; L. Edelman, J. Ehrlich, A. Katz, J. Conn.
Athletic committee: T. Frank, chairman; Dr. L. Friedman, vice chairman; Oscar Levine, Perry Frank, A. Slavovskiy, A. Rosenberg, J. Markley.
Good and welfare committee: L. Sandler, chairman; A. Levine, vice chairman; L. Kohn, Dr. H. A. Frank, J. Gerson, J. Gold.
Cultural committee: Rabbi N. H. Diamond, Rabbi P. Katz, Rabbi H. Leon Schwartz.

ate "Jackson Day" dinners. 250,000 tickets for the dinners have been ordered and 50,000 more will be sold throughout the country.

The price of tickets runs as high as fifty dollars, five dollars for food, forty-five dollars to help the Democratic party finance itself.

EVEN FIVE DOLLARS for "meal of victuals" would seem a good deal to some small "one-horse" farmers, struggling to clear fifteen dollars a month with which to feed an entire family.

Andrew Jackson himself would be surprised if he could attend one of the dinners in his honor. He never spent $5 for dinner in his life. As for a $50 dinner, that would make him wonder.

THAT "American hospital" alleged to have been wiped out by Italian bombs at Daggah Bur is now said to have been an Egyptian Red Cross station.

Egyptian or American, it is the same. Hereafter, those that go to the seat of war with steel helmets, or red crosses, must expect bombs to fall and gases to spread. Princes and nobles kept away from the front when gunpowder made their armor plate worthless—bombs and gas may discourage others.

"Highly civilized nations," including England and this country, so much horrified by today's proceeding in Ethiopia, are at this moment employing chemists to develop newer and deadlier gases, more powerful explosives.

These would be used in war without a moment's hesitation against any enemy, regardless of red crosses or anything else, on the ground.

There is considerable hypocrisy among the sanctimonious nations.

THE METHODIST Episcopal Church is proud to announce in Nashville, Tenn., that it begins 1936 with 2,783,269 regularly enrolled members, an increase over the preceding year of 31,269, with 21,361 baptized infants not included.

This is the reply of the Methodist Episcopalians to the high church Episcopalians of the English church, that suggest giving up Protestantism altogether as a failure.

Will Take Part In Intercollegiate Debate

JOHN SAWYER

GILBERT LEVINE

John Sawyer of Darlington and Gilbert Levine, a Geneva college senior and New Castle high school graduate in the January class of 1933, will participate in an intercollegiate debate with Westminster college at Warren, O., this evening.

The question to be discussed is one of national-wide importance. Resolved: That congress should be permitted by a two-thirds majority to override any decision of the supreme court declaring an act of congress unconstitutional. The Geneva team will uphold the negative side of the question.

A new type of debating known as the Oregon plan providing for Cross examination of the speakers will no doubt cause a definite and interesting class in issues. The audience will by vote determine the winners.

"What's that, stranger? I'm little deaf."
"I beg your pardon?"
"I said I'm a little deaf. I didn't hear you."
"You don't say! I'm deaf, too."
"That's too bad! Now, what was it you wanted?"
"Can you tell me how to get to Bryant street?"
"Sure. You go down this way for four blocks and then turn to your right. It's the third street down."
"That's Bryant street, is it?"
"Oh! No. Excuse me, old man. I thought you said Bryant street."
"No, I said Bryant street."
"Never heard of it. Sorry, stranger."

Whether the members will vote for the outright payment plan of the Vinson-McCormack group and Commander Ray Murphy of the American Legion or the 97¢ plan of the Byrnes-Steiwer followers, remains to be seen. Rep. John O'Connor, chairman of the House rules committee, was single handedly holding up action on both measures. (Central Press).

Induct Wolves' Club Officers

Installation Dinner Takes Place At Elks Home Tuesday Evening

SUMMERS TAKES OVER PRESIDENCY

Newly elected officers of the Wolves club were inducted into office, Tuesday evening, in the Elks club, N. Mill street, when the organization gathered for its first regular dinner meeting of the year.

After a sumptuous dinner, retiring president, Angelo J. Casacchia, in a most appropriate manner, thanked the members for their earnest support and co-operation. He then introduced Frank C. Summers, newly elected president, who responded with an interesting address. Mr. Summers paid a fitting tribute to Mr. Casacchia whose leadership during the past twelve months resulted in one of the most successful years enjoyed by the Wolves club since its origination. He closed by urging the support of members of the club.

The exercises continued with brief speeches by each member. The men brought out in an enthusiastic way, the fine work of the retiring administration.

Carm Sacco, Frank Summers and D. D. Valensi, who comprised the committee in charge of the annual dinner-dance, held at the field club, were complimented for arranging such a delightful occasion.

Following are the 1936 officials who started their duties Tuesday night: Frank C. Summers, president; Dr. John Pioletti, first vice president; James Colucci, Hillsville, second vice president; Charles DeCarbo, treasurer; Sam Ross, secretary; Anthony Sacco, sergeant-at-arms; Board of Directors, Dr. John Pioletti, three years; Carm Sacco, three years; Frank C. Summers, three years; David Valensi, two years; David Valensi, Charles Ross, Vero Graziani, auditing committee.

The following committees were appointed by the president to serve during the next year: entertainment committee, D. D. Valensi, chairman; Jake DeFonso, S. Mooney; public affairs committee, E. Scarazzo, chairman; J. Colucci, J. DeLawrence; assistant-sergeant-at-arms, Dominick Guido; publicity committee, C. L. Ross.

An interesting program is being arranged for the next regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, January 21, in the Elks club.

County Classes Organize Tuesday

Many Register At West Pittsburgh And Chewton In Educational Program

Registrations in adult educational classes were heavy last night in West Pittsburgh with 144 people registering for the various educational subjects and recreation. Additional registrations are expected on the remaining nights of this week.

Classes will begin Monday evening, January 13, and from the present indications it is evident that classes will be held in typing, shorthand, citizenship, English, spelling, reading, arithmetic and drafting, with other classes to be organized as registrations justify.

Arthur Alexander, head of the recreational program, will organize his classes the same nights, with prospective choral groups and orchestra work.

Registrations were also heavy in Chewton, nearly 100 enrolled for the various subjects and it is probable that the same classes will be held there, alternately with West Pittsburgh. Classes will begin there Tuesday evening, January 14.

H. W. Hunter will be in charge of organization of classes and teachers in these centers.

The Ukrainians observed a commemoration of the ten Craceta's martyrs last Sunday by a special vesper service. The sisterhood decorated the trees. Friday, January 10, at 7 p. m. there will be a meeting of the Ukrainian Youths' club in the church hall, and on Saturday, January 11, at 10 a. m. a Ukrainian children's class will be conducted. ## 'Polly Ticks' Is Speech Theme At Lions' Luncheon

George L. Smith Makes Hit
With Humorous Message
Given Yesterday

Laughter exploded in resounding waves at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Lions club Tuesday, as George L. Smith, jovial past president of the club and humorist-extraordinary, gave his heralded speech on "How Polly Ticks in Lawrence County."

Flavored with all the political trimmings, the entertaining talk, given for the sake of entertainment alone, formed the richest oratorical dish the club has consumed in months.

Before Mr. Smith spoke, the club approved the proposed "community get-together" of all service clubs, planned for sometime in March at the Cathedral. The Civic Club Roundtable, representative group of the clubs, will sponsor it.

Present as a guest at yesterday's luncheon was Clarence Dawson, representing the Public Charities Association of Pennsylvania. Dr. G. S. Bennett, a Lion, introduced Mr. Dawson and the latter spoke briefly of the organization's local conference here later.

Slow Speed Season Opens For Motorist

Driving Hazards Make Caution
Necessary, Motorists
Are Told

HARRISBURG, Jan. 8.—Slippery highways, fog and early darkness are three good reasons for reducing car speed at this season, Harry E. Kalodner, Secretary of Revenue, advised motorists today in urging greater caution on the highways.

Speeds ordinarily safe may become extremely dangerous under unfavorable conditions, he said, adding that it is impossible for anyone to define a truly "safe speed."

In terms of miles per hour, as applicable to a passenger car, maximum speed limits (subject to reduction when conditions are unfavorable), are:

Forty miles per hour on the highway, ten miles per hour when passing a safety zone when street car is discharging passengers, fifteen miles per hour when passing a school during recess or opening or closing hours, twenty miles per hour at intersections when view is not clear for 200 feet each way when within 50 feet of the intersection.

SPEED WARNING

HARRISBURG.—Collisions with pedestrians and horse-drawn vehicles at night can be prevented by never overriding your headlights, the governor's Highway Safety council said. "Determine what speed your visibility will justify—and then drive just a little more slowly than that," they advise.

Why Not Sign This Chap For Joe Louis

(International News Service)

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Jan. 8.—They booked William Fret, 31, for disorderly conduct today.

But the charge, say police, doesn't tell the half of it.

William is a stalwart Estonian and a home-loving guy. He arrived here on the good Greek ship Ardine Pandelis and went ashore for a little relaxation. He relaxed so much that when he returned to the pier-head the Ardine Pandelis was enroute back to Greece.

But the good Norwegian freighter Christian Krogh was moored nearby and William decided that it was good enough for him. Any ship to get him home. Three Norwegian seamen informed him he couldn't go to Greece aboard their craft.

Has Real Wallop

Three Norwegian seamen promptly were knocked galley-west.

Came the police. They cajoled, threatened, threw tear gas bombs. William entrenched himself in the hold, refused to emerge while the cops wept in their own tear gas. After two hours of this, Sergt. Joseph Maglone and three associates joined into the hold. The sergeant joined the three Norwegians in temporary oblivion. But the three cops collared William.

Then they decided he was a disorderly person and took him to jail.

AROUND CITY HALL

It is apparent that the new council intends to watch the city's pennies, judging from what happened in the first conference held after they assumed office. In the matter of an audit of the 1935 tax duplicates council took the position that the controller is the city's auditor and it would be illegal for the city to engage another. The controller has put himself on record as being willing to supervise the job.

Some of these days the new council will have to ponder over the ordinance which, for one year, has forced proprietors of places where beer is sold and dancing is allowed, to pay $1.00, for each day dancing is allowed. Under the law 90 percent of the sum paid in was to be returned. However, the controller, Earl Wimer, refused to honor a refund. More than $1,000 of the proprietors' funds is tied up by the city. One of them recently said he could use the money to pay his taxes. Indications are the money will continue to be tied up unless the ordinance is killed or someone enters suit to compel Wimer to return the 90 percent.

Under a new law, Patrolman Robert Dukes will receive his full salary, hospital and doctor bills for a

A huge smile crossed the face of Mayor Charles E. McGrath when he studied the names of the persons who had sent him a bouquet. Among the names was Butz Bros. It was with this firm that probably 30 years ago a slim legged youngster applied for and received a job. He worked there quite a while and when he mounted the political ladder to occupy the mayoralty rung Butz Bros. tossed him a bouquet which was not only nice but also a nice thing to do.

Time may come to pass when all persons who give testimony in police court will raise their right hand and swear to tell the truth and nothing else but the truth. Years ago no police court session was conducted without this formality. Of course few serious police cases come before a mayor but it would be surprising if the practice of asking persons to be sworn were adopted.

Miss Mercer Knows Westminster Lore

Has Served Long Time As Secretary To President
Of College

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Jan. 8.—Outside the teaching staff, Miss Corinne Mercer, secretary to President Robert F. Galbreath, has been working for Westminster College longer than any other employee.

Miss Mercer came to Westminster in 1908 as secretary to W. W. Campbell, director of the Conservatory of Music. President Galbreath is the fourth president under whom Miss Mercer has acted as secretary.

Official "answerer of questions" is Miss Mercer, to whom all puzzling questions are ultimately referred, especially on matters of school history, past students and faculty, and queries in general.

After receiving her A. B. degree from Westminster in 1908, Miss Mercer attended the Spencian school, Cleveland, and took a business course. Returning to Westminster, she became secretary to the director of the Conservatory of Music in 1908, and in addition to her secretarial work, taught harmony and sight-singing until 1918 when she became permanent secretary to the president.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Rat-Tat-Tattle: Comes the spiky rumor that Mae West sent greetings to her girl friends as follows "Here's Wishing You a Perfect Thirty-Six!"... The Christmas Tree in the Radio City plaza cost $500 to dismantle and haul away.... "Mos" impressive comeback among theatricians during 1935.... Alla Nazimova in "Ghosts".... Nobody yet can explain the sudden resurgence to box-office appeal of the dusty "problem drama" of the last generation....

Bill Farnsworth, the sporting writer, motored from New York to Miami in 28 hours' continuous driving.... The sedate old Astor Hotel, refurbished and spruced up modernistically, looks positively saucy nowadays.... Ethel Barrymore will give no more interviews to lady reporters, sharing Peggy Joyce's animadversion for female newshawks....

The Staten Island, N. Y., "Advance," running a contest to pick the best-dressed man in town, wrote to ask my standards of masculine haberdashery.... I batted off a searching critique on finery for Adonises and then glanced down to find I was wearing one black sock and one gaily striped green-and-red!... A pleasant epistle from Francis Lederer, the movie Romeo, who is still devoting all his spare time to a plan for alleviating the depression; he's a little afraid the pickup may come before he has all details of his scheme worked out in which case he'll never know whether it would have succeeded or failed....

Since they're all doing it, this reporter might as well name his ten favorite movies of 1935.... Remember, though, he didn't see them all and may have missed that thriller you raved about.... Indeed, I had seen all the films of 1935.... I'd be in some padded ward attending the basket-weaving class instead of indulging this gentleman form of insanity.... As to the movies; here's my list, in the order of their appearance....

"The Lives of a Bergal Lancer," "Rugles of Red Cap," "G-Men," "China Seas," "Diamond Jim," "39 Steps," "Sesquiala," "Dark Angel," "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "Show Them No Mercy."

There's a lot of chatter along Broadway nowadays as to Babe Ruth's future. America's heroes of the last decade have all found comfortable niches for themselves, but the Babe's plans are still inchoate. Dempsey has become a beaming restaurateur and the kids drop around to his hushery afternoon to get autographed menus. Tunney has definitely and gracefully retired to family life and country squiredom. One of the more active and inquisitive gadabouts tells me that Ruth has been approached by a half-dozen circus owners with salary offers more alluring even than the top figures he earned as the Sultan of Swat. Every small boy in the land would tug his unreluctant papa into the Big Top if the Bambino was on hand in person.

But there's a problem. What will Ruth do for his audiences? He can sing and his dancing isn't notable. He's a crack golfer and dead rifle shot, but neither of these talents could be framed suitably for an act. One sawdust czar has evolved a grotesque plan. He proposed to stand Babe up in the corner of a side-show tent and have him bunt back baseballs pitched by customers at so much a toss!

Liberty League Is Well Managed

Shouse Is Hard Worker And Provides Effective Propaganda For League

PAST EXPERIENCE PROVES VALUABLE

Central Press
Washington Bureau
1900 S. Street
By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Whatever else one may think of the American Liberty league in all fairness it must be admitted that it is well managed.

Its jobs at the New Deal are far
more effective than the Republican national committee's. In fact, the administration can and does afford virtually to ignore the G. O. P.'s official organization. Its thrusts don't hurt any. But every time the league makes a pass at it, it hollers.

For one thing the Republican committee is partisan. Its every anti-
New Deal utterance is discounted,
because it is outspokenly on the administration side of the Republican-Democratic fence. It generally is recognized that its job is to find fault not necessarily justifiably.
Besides, its fault finding is not overly pungent.

The Liberty league calls itself non-partisan. And why should it? It has some Republican backing, certainly. Also enlisted under its banner, however, are John W. Davis,

who ran for president on the Democratic ticket in 1924; Al Smith, who ran for president on the same ticket
in 1928; John J. Raskob, who was Democratic national chairman for four years; J. Edgar Hoover, who did more than any other single individual to "smear" Hoover during the depression years preceding the 1932
election. Moreover, the league's publicity is dandy.

HE CAN SPREAD IT!

Jouett Shouse!
One must hand it to that chap as
a wonder at political propaganda.
He took over the direction of Democratic destinies (nominally as an underling of Chairman Raskob,
but really as boss of the whole outfit)
at a juncture when many politicians believed the party was on the verge of disintegration, and simply wrecked the opposition with his
press agency by the 1932 campaign.
True, he did it for Al Smith, and Franklin D. Roosevelt reaped the benefit, but the press agency was Shouse's.

Charley Michelson got the credit
for this publicity, but Charley's propaganda hasn't been so hot, on the defensive, as propaganda man for the Democratic committee, since he hasn't had Shouse as what perhaps he was before—his inspiration. On the opposite hand, Bill Murphy,
operating for the league under Jouett's direction, has had it all over Charley.

The conclusion is hard to escape
that Shouse, rather than either Michelson or Murphy, is the wonder-working propagandist.

WHAT HE WANTS?

What Jouett Shouse wants (it's hard to think that he doesn't seek something political) isn't very apparent.

He doesn't seem politically ambitious. He has served a term or two in congress and once held a minor
post in the treasury department, but there are no signs that he has higher aspirations.

He's a rather rich man, but not
rich enough to warrant the conclusion that his aim is to dominate politics for plutocratic reasons.

He hasn't the earmarks of a Mussolini.

As the American Liberty league's
manager he is said to receive $30,000 annually. A snug sum! Yet I wouldn't like to assert that he
evolved the American Liberty league (though he undoubtedly did evolve
it) for the sake of $30,000 per annum.

tecedents!

County Welfare Conference Will Be Arranged Here

Held Here On Tuesday Afternoon

Plans for the annual Lawrence County Welfare Conference to be held under the auspices of the mem-

at an informal meeting of representatives of local service clubs yesterday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A.

The program as planned will include afternoon round-table discussions on the formation of a New Castle Council of Social Agencies,
the placement of dependent children in foster homes and institutions, mental health and mental defectives. The dinner session will be devoted to discussions on pending
welfare legislation in Pennsylvania
and on crime prevention.

Judge W. Walter Braham has agreed to serve as chairman of the conference and Rev. G. S. Bennett
as associate chairman. The conference will probably be held in the First Presbyterian church on Thursday, January 23, 1936.

Representatives of all local clubs
and all sections of the county will be urged to attend and all sessions
will be free and open to the public,
except that a charge of 50 cents
per plate will be made at the dinner
session.

The Public Charities Association
of Pennsylvania is a state-wide organization devoted to maintaining proper standards and improving
welfare conditions in the state, under the presidency of Dr. Charles H. Frazier of Philadelphia. Fred Rantz is the director in Lawrence county, which at present has 24
members in the association.

On Court House Hill

Former County Commissioner F.
M. Davis of Wampum was a visitor
at the courthouse yesterday. He reports the condition of former County Commissioner T. J. McCullough
about the same. Mr. McCullough suffered a stroke some time ago and has not been able to be out of the house, although he can sit up in a chair. Mrs. McCullough, his wife, is also in poor health.

Constable J. Wallace Wysner of
the first ward presented a petition to court asking that Paul A. Whiteside be appointed as a deputy constable for the ward. Wysner reports
a great many legal papers to serve,
in addition to looking after the
peace and good order of his district.
The petition for a deputy was granted
and Whiteside was sworn in by Prothonotary John A. Edgar.

Former County Treasurer William
O. Pitts, who is going to work in his blacksmith shop and on his North Beaver township farm, came to New Castle yesterday to get a pair of overalls, but couldn't find any big enough. Bill has expanded considerably since he left the forge for a soft snap in the county treasurer's office, and it now takes a size 54 to encompass him. If anybody knows where there is an oversize pair of overalls, please notify him.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard reports that out of 32 properties sold
under the hammer Monday, only
one was bought by a person other than the holder of the mortgage.

Ten persons were registered and
five changed their party affiliations
on the first day that the registration books were open, according to Registration Clerk Thomas Edmunds.

County relief cases outside the city of New Castle, as shown by a list made up for the new county
commissioners, show the following number of cases in the districts indicated: Bessemer, 11; Castlewood, 9; Chewton, 1; East Brook, 3; Eden-
burg, 12; Enon, 6; Harlansburg, 4; Hillsville, 15; Moravia, 1; New Bedford, 3; New Castle R. D. 4, 1; New Wilmington, 4; Princeton, 2; Por-tersville R. D. 3; Pulaski, 1; Rose

Point, 4; Volant, 5; Wampum, 14
and West Pittsburgh, 7. There are also some scattered through the country districts. The greater burden is in the city of New Castle.

It was 37 years ago last night since City Treasurer John Blevins was murdered. This greatest mystery
crime in the annals of Lawrence county is still fresh in the minds of older persons, but a new generation
has grown up, many of whom have learned but vaguely of the crime
that shocked the community on that memorable Saturday night, January 7, 1899.

It was a bitter cold night, John Blevins left his son's store about nine o'clock, saying that he was going to his office on some errand. When he had not returned home at 11 o'clock his son went to look for him. When he arrived at the city treasurer's office he found his father lying under a table
in a pool of blood.

An examination showed that Blevins' skull had been fractured
with some blunt instrument, his jaw
was broken, his nose crushed and
his head and face badly battered.
The city council offered a reward of $2,000 for the murderer. The county commissioners offered a similar amount. Detectives flocked
here and joined with local officials
in a search for the slayer. Many supposed clues were run down, but no one was ever arrested for the crime. There were some of the detectives who had strong suspicions,
but not enough evidence was found to warrant an arrest. At least that was the report made after several volumes of testimony had been taken from persons with whom Blevins
was associated, or with whom he had dealings. Who murdered John Blevins and why is as much of a mystery today as it was on that night 37 years ago.

Argentina imported in the first quarter of this year more than twice
the amount of American resinsous
lumber than it did the corresponding period of 1934.

Woman Takes Up Commissionership

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 8.—Believed
to be the first woman township
commissioner in Pennsylvania, Mrs.
Florence Derrick Camp, 33, University of Michigan graduate and mother of two, on Tuesday began her administration with announcement of

plans for sweeping changes in Harrison township.

She demanded a balanced budget
an end to "extravagance and inefficiency" in the road and garbage
collection departments, and construction of a municipal light and water plant—"even if we have to become a third-class city to do it."

For a cooling fruit-flavored milk
drink, add two or three teaspoons
of marmalade—grape, cherry or orange—to a glass of milk. Shake well
Top with mint leaves.

Headache

"Inside Facts"

that may help you ...

The first step toward relieving
simple headache is to understand its cause. Pain is the cry of overtaxed nerves for rest. And when we realize that the nerve spread
throughout every part of the body (see head diagram) we understand
how serious a nervous disturbance
can be.

In selecting a remedy for headache,
periodic pains, and other nerve pain
use one that soothes the tense nerves.
Capudine is ideally suited for simple
headache, neuralgic pain, rheumatic,
or periodic pain because it relieves high
nerve tension and brings welcome relaxation. Also remember that Capudine is quicker because it is a liquid—its ingredients are already dissolved. No narcotics or opiates.

TO DEMAND REVIVAL OF ANNULLED A. A. A.

Farm Federation Leaders Active

To Descend On Washington
With Demand For Action
In Situation

TARIFF FOR ALL
IS BATTLE CRY

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—A figurative march on Washington by American farmers will be made today when Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, and the bureau's 15 board members leave for the capitol to demand a constitutional amendment to revive the annulled AAA.

Bitterly criticizing the "small group of industrialists" who have opposed the AAA, O'Neal charged that the decision clearly discriminates against the farmer.

Industry and business, he said, are protected by the tariff, and under existing conditions the farmer is unprotected.

"We demand a tariff for all, or a tariff for none," the farm leader said. "Our fight is a battle for equality, farmers in an unregulated market cannot compete for a living with the regulated industry and business. Agriculture must have protection if the livelihood of more than 500,000 farm families is to be protected."

"If necessary, we will demand that the constitution be amended to permit the farmers to have the protection afforded by the AAA," O'Neal added.

O'Neal said the farm bureau federation has a membership of 500,000 families representing a million and a half voters. If necessary, he said, "these voters will go to the polls to fight for their rights. Fifty million people earn their living from agriculture and their voice will be heard."

MINE SEALING WORK STARTED IN MERCER CO.

(Special To The News)
GROVE CITY, Jan. 8.—Work on the Mercer county mine-sealing project under the WPA, was launched today, with W. J. Koerner of this city in charge, and headquarters established in the old borough jail building. About 105 men will be employed in this vicinity, testing for water in abandoned coal mines for possible sources of stream pollution, and sealing the mines when located.

Tools and equipment are now enroute to Grove City. Three groups of workmen will handle the work, estimated to take four months, in the Stoneboro, Grove City and Springfield Township mining districts.

Mr. Koerner reports, after a preliminary survey, an estimate of 180 mine sources of stream pollution in the southern tier of Mercer county townships. At least two such abandoned mines are located in the Grove City borough limits, it is reported.

The general contract went to the Cook-Anderson Co., of Beaver, Pa.; heating and plumbing to Ash & Co., of Grove City; and electrical work to the Beckley Co., Warren, Pa. Work is expected to start soon, with completion early next fall.

The contracts cover three items. The major undertaking is a dormitory for women, accommodating 100, named the Mary Anderson Pew Hall in honor of the wife of the late Joseph Newton Pew. A wing will be added to Isaac C. Ketter Hall for boys, which faces the proposed new building across the quadrangle on the upper campus. The third item is "Overlook Terrace," consisting of a low parapet, walk, platform and benches along the bluff overlooking Wolf Creek and the lower campus.

The new building will be the fourth erected since 1930, at a cost exceeding a million dollars.

Glenville Is Easy For Westminster

Titans Defeat West Virginians On Tuesday Evening 53-28

RESERVES PLAY MOST OF GAME

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Jan. 8.—With the score 22-2 after eight minutes' play, Coach John Lawther pulled his first-string Titans from the floor and let his second and third string courtmen glide on to an easy 53-28 romping over the Glenville Teachers from West Virginia last night.

Bennett opened the scoring with an easy tap, followed by another bucket as Willis dribbled under the basket for an easy one. Krivosh followed with two more on nice blocking by Titan floormen. Bennett crossed up the West Virginia guard by slipping a basket under his arm instead of over his head, as the Ohio center usually shoots.

Bennett shot from in front of the basket, followed by a dribble shot under the basket by Hunneke. As Hunneke and Bennett repeated with easy buckets, Coach John Lawther pulled the first string with the score 22-2 in favor of the Titans.

The Titan subs continued to find the basket and the half ended 32-5. At the start of the second half, with the varsity Titans soaking up with hot water in the shower-room, the second-stringers carried on the game for a quarter before giving way to the third string quintet, who finished the game.

The game was the roughest for years on the New Wilmington court. Coach Lawther reversed his playing order, putting Hunneke and Krivosh up into the front line as forwards and drawing Bennett and Willis back into the guard posts. While they rushed the Glenville basket, they rushed the Glenville basket, they almost under their own basket in the most sensational defensive game of the year.

Fouls rained thick in the first quarter with hard body contact and fast foot work. Three men left the game on personals, as arms and legs got completely scrambled at times.

Davies, West Virginia forward, played well for the visitors and sank four baskets for nine points. Marshall, high-scoring guard against Westburg, failed to find the basket and left the floor with eight points, two baskets and four free-throws.

Bennett's high-scoring average received a setback as he left the floor with only ten points to his credit after scoring 21 in the game against Youngstown Saturday night. Stevenson and Bellingham, second-string basket, followed with eight points each.

Out of the 14 men who played for the Titans, 11 scored. Paul Backus alone failed to register a field goal for the varsity, but the lanky Youngstown center was feeding all kinds of potential baskets in to Bennett and the two newly-made forwards, Krivosh and Hunneke.

Geneva Aces To Meet Titan Stars Thursday

FRED MILANOVICH—GUARD
GEORGE PENEBAKER—FORWARD

Geneva, Pa., Jan. 8.—Continuing one of the longest and hardest-fought series in the country, the Westminster Titans and the Geneva Covenanters will meet for the 55th time, at Beaver Falls, Thursday, Jan. 9.

Geneva has won 30 and Westminster 24 out of the 54 games played since the start of the series in 1893, two years after the invention of basketball as a game.

Although on the losing side of the series, the Titans had the honor of winning the first game by a score of 21-4 in 1898. Geneva, however, took over the leadership in 1899 and continued it until 1905, during which period the Covenanters won 12 out of the 13 games played. The Titans then came back with five victories out of the six played from 1905-1909.

Because of the dropping of the sport at Westminster, the series was discontinued until 1915, when an all-star intramural team from the New Wilmington school was defeated by the Covenanters 34-24. The following year, another intramural quintet met a 55-11 setback.

In 1918, Westminster resumed basketball and broke even with Geneva, until 1927 when Coach John Lawther took over basketball at the Titan institution. Since 1927, Lawther's aggregation have won 11 and lost 7 to Geneva.

Westminster's 24 victories have been more decisive than Geneva's 30, for out of the 54 game total of 2,867 points, the Titans have scored 1,454 to the Covenanters 1,413. The average score for the long-time series is Westminster 26.8-Geneva 26.1.

In 1932, the Titans took both games in Geneva; lost both games in 1934; and last year split the series 47-32 and 26-31.

The probable starting line-up for the game at Beaver Falls, Thursday night, will be as follows:

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Hank Bath and Red Burman, heavyweight fighters managed by Jack Kearns and Jack Dempsey, respectively, will not fight Friday night in Madison Square garden, New York, because the boxing commission refused to issue a license to Bath. The license will not be issued until certain information the commission desires arrives from California. Kearns managed Dempsey on the road to the championship and old time fans in addition to the newcomers expected a "Battle of Wits" between Kearns and Dempsey who split years ago. The commission will also decide next week whether or not Mike Jacobs, promoter should be fined for cancelling the Gastana-Louis scrap which was billed for Cuba, December 20.

Wampum Trims Shenango High

East New Castle Quintet Is Nosed Out By 24-23 Count In Fast Game

SHENANGO MAIDENS WIN ANOTHER, 21-12

(Special To The News)
 WAMPUM, Pa., Jan. 8.—Wampum high school's basketball team rose to new heights here on Tuesday night, by nosing out a strong Shenango high quintet. The final score, 24-23. The Shenango high girls avenged for the loss by winning a 21-12 triumph over Wampum girls, in a fast preliminary contest.

The Wampumites opened with an attack that bewildered their opponents. The game had hardly started and the home towners were sporting a 7-0 lead. Tanner scored twice and Werusuk converted a free throw to send the Shenango boys just two points behind. Wampum, Marshall for Wampum registered a foul and Lysko for Shenango sent the sphere through the hoops as the initial quarter ended with Wampum on top, 8-7.

At the start of the second stanza, Shenango took the lead when Pitzer sank a long one. Fontanna again brought back the lead to Wampum with a nice shot, followed by a foul throw by Flummer. The fighting clan of East New Castle passers again took the lead when Werusuk made good a foul attempt and Tanner tallied a field goal. The half ended shortly, Shenango leading 12-11.

The third quarter saw the lead change repeatedly. Wampum was on top 18-15 when the third stanza ended. With Flummer and Marshall advancing the attack, Wampum rallied to get a commanding 24-17 lead as the game nearly ended. In the final three minutes, Shenango tried desperately to overcome their opponents. Tanner found the hoop for two more field goals and Irvine converted two charity tosses as the game ended. Final score, Wampum 24—Shenango 23.

Tanner was outstanding for Shenango, scoring six times from the field. Flummer with five baskets and two fouls proved Wampum's star. In the girls' game, Clark, for Shenango, scored 11 points; DeMaio, for Wampum, had 8 points. Lineup of the boys' game:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—A buying rush developed in the stock market shortly after the opening today and trading swamped the ticker during the first half hour with the tape trailing as much as 5 minutes. Later profit-taking cut down gains considerably.

Summation of a farm conference in Washington for the week-end exerted a steadying influence on commodities, with the cotton market recovering to score gains of 30 cents a bale. Grains were irregularly higher while sugar met profit-taking. Prices being one point higher to eight lower.

An overnight jump of 4 1/2 points in Allied Chemical and a spurt of two points in Westinghouse featured gains of a point or more appeared in Union Pacific, Cerro de Pasco, U. S. Smelting, American Can and Liggett & Myers.

In the power section, U. G. I., American Water Works, North American and Columbia Gas entered new high ground for a year or more while in rails new highs were set by New York Central, Pennsylvania Southern Pacific and Atchafalaya.

Motor shares opened higher but soon weakened to fall below yesterday's quotations. The farm equipment shares were generally strong under leadership of the rails and industries.

Three Will Face Trial In Court

Alderman Holds Santo And Walker After Hearing Tuesday

MOONEY EARLIER WAIVED HEARING

After hearing testimony from three city police officers on Tuesday afternoon, Alderman Wallace J. Ewing heard over to the March term of court Joseph Santo, 81 Morris street, and Kenneth Walker, East Main street, two of three men whom the city officers seized in a surprise raid on a hideaway Laurel avenue moonshine plant last Friday, all of whom now face charges of liquor law violations.

The third man of the trio, Harry Mooney, also of 81 Morris street, had waived a hearing earlier and posted $1,500 bail for his appearance later in court.

Each of the three faces a charge of "unlawful manufacture of alcohol and the possession of liquor unlawfully acquired and the possession of unlawful liquor."

Testifying at yesterday's hearing were Officers Cecil F. Suber and William E. Tyrrell and Chief of Detectives Willis G. McMullen.

Tell Of Surveillance
The three related how the supposedly-vacant bungalow on Laurel avenue, just off Wilmington, had been under police surveillance for some time and how, when it appeared best to strike, they had gone to the vicinity of the home and trailed a car which had left it, to a point on Grant street, where its occupants, Mooney and Walker, were arrested. Other officers, almost at the same time, visited the home and found Santo.

Neither Walker nor Santo had anything to say at the hearing, other than their plea of "not guilty."

The liquor still and accessory equipment has been dismantled by County Detective A. Sharp Leslie and removed to the county jail.

Chief of Police John F. Haven, who directed the raid, placed the charges against the trio. In default of $1,500 bail, Santo and Walker were returned to the county jail after the hearing.

THE SUPREME COURT DECISION ON THE AAA

New Castle, Pa. January 7, 1936.

Editor News.

Dear Sir:

Few people seem to understand the scope and effect of the recent decision of the Supreme Court on the AAA.

Prior to the adoption of the Federal Constitution, the states were independent sovereign powers. The separate states met in a convention, and agreed to delegate to the federal government, certain of their sovereign powers, but expressly reserved unto themselves, all power not thus delegated. This became the federal constitution, which formed a dual system of government. The federal government only having such powers expressly, or by necessary implication, delegated to them by the federal constitution, and the states expressly reserving to themselves, all such powers not so delegated.

The recent decision of the Supreme Court on the AAA held, that the federal constitution did not delegate to the federal government control over crop production, but that such control was wholly with the state governments.

It should be evidenced to anyone, that the federal government being much more powerful, would constantly tend to destroy and nullify the rights of the states. The AAA decision does not hold that processing taxes are illegal, but only, that such taxes must be levied and collected by the states. Under this decision, any state in the Union can levy such a tax and distribute it in the way it sees fit.

In other words, the decision protects and preserves the rights of local self government, as distinguished from bureaucratic control in Washington.
